

You were born under Water and that means you love looking after people and animals, you love creating new things, and you are a wonderful actor.

So far we have learnt that your sign is Pisces and that your element is Water!

