

You were born under Earth and that means you love to learn and ask questions, you are always honest and you like to put ideas into practice.

So far we have learnt that your sign is Capricorn and that your element is Earth!

